MACEDON RANGES

NATURALLY COOL

Autumn in the Macedon Ranges

Autumn in the Macedon Ranges is an explosion of colour, with Macedon and Mount Macedon in particular being recognised as one of Victoria's top destinations.

The immaculately presented Open Gardens, and vivid reds and oranges of Honour Avenue are sure to impress, but while you're here be sure to make the most of your visit. Macedon and Mount Macedon townships are buzzing with a great mix of pubs, eateries, bars, nurseries and art galleries.

Go further afield and discover the many other attractions in the Macedon Ranges, all within easy driving distance. There's so much more to explore!

1 Autumn Leaves on Honour Avenue

Honour Avenue, Macedon

Take a walk under the trees down Honour Avenue. The spectacular avenue of oaks honours the 154 men and women of Macedon and Mount Macedon who enlisted for service during World War I. The avenue is especially magnificent at this time of the year with the autumnal leaf colour. You will be so amazed by the colours that you will forget where you are, so please remember to stay clear of the road and give way to traffic.

Please note vehicles are not permitted to pull over or park between the hours of 9am–5pm along Honour Avenue. Penalties will apply. Please be aware that this is a residential area and remain respectful of people's privacy.

5 6 Macedon & Mount Macedon Villages

Victoria Street, Macedon & Mount Macedon Rd, Mount Macedon

Why not kick off your day with breakfast or coffee at a cafe or bakery in Macedon or Mount Macedon before taking a stroll down Honour Avenue or through an open garden. Wander through galleries or visit the nurseries before finishing your day with a glass of Macedon Ranges wine, paired with local fare at one of the pubs or restaurants.

7 Open Gardens

Macedon, Mount Macedon & surrounds

Soak in the ambience of some of Victoria's finest gardens behind the walls of the impressive Mount Macedon mansions, many of which are National Trust listed.

How to get here

The services below will be operating on weekends and public holidays during April (dates subject to change).

2 Car Parking & Visitor Information

Centennial Park: Mount Macedon Road, Macedon

Visiting Honour Avenue? Please note that parking is limited and restrictions will be in place along Honour Avenue and Mount Macedon Road during April (penalties apply). Dedicated car parking and a visitor information booth (on weekends and public holidays) is available at Centennial Park, directly opposite Honour Avenue. Accessible parking is available at the Church of the Resurrection (cnr Honour Ave and Mt Macedon Rd).

3 Bus Parking

Tony Clarke Reserve: 37 Waterfalls Road, Macedon

Dedicated bus parking is available at Tony Clarke Reserve, only a short walk from Honour Avenue.

4 Free Shuttle Service

Refer to map for pick up locations

Why not leave the car at home and take the train? A free shuttle service will operate on weekends and public holidays running between Macedon train station, Honour Avenue, Centennial Park and the open gardens.

Refer to the map for pick up locations or visitmacedonranges.com/autumn-macedon-ranges for more information.

8 Memorial Cross and Macedon Regional Park

Cameron Drive, Mount Macedon

An emotive experience and incredible views can be found on the summit of Mount Macedon at the Memorial Cross which commemorates Australia's war fallen. Macedon Regional Park boasts diverse flora and fauna and a range of walking trails for all abilities. Visit Sanatorium Lake or climb Camels Hump and take in the views of Hanging Rock.

9 Hanging Rock

139 South Rock Road, Woodend

There is so much to do at Hanging Rock! Families can gather for a picnic or have coffee in the café. Walks can be taken on the trails that weave through the reserve or take a fishing rod and try your luck in the dam (don't forget your licence). And of course, it's also a must to walk to the top of the rock that boasts magnificent 360 degree views.

For the latest information on things to see and do, where to stay and what's on in the Macedon Ranges see visitmacedonranges.com or speak to one of our friendly volunteers at the Visitor Information Centres. A temporary Visitor Information Booth will also be on site at Centennial Park, Macedon, on weekends and public holidays.
